HINESVILLE, GA. – Jungle Jake’s hosted a ribbon cutting in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, October 25th at their new location at 312B Memorial Drive in downtown Hinesville. Owner, Jason Lee welcomed family members, city elected officials, chamber staff, board members, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“I enjoyed playing games like this myself, they make people think and strategize,” said James Thomas, Mayor of Hinesville. He went on to commend Jungle Jake’s for their contribution to the community and growth of downtown Hinesville.

Jungle Jake’s is a hobby/game shop specializing in game workshops, Wizards of the Coast, strategy games, game supplies, older comic books and other unique items. The shop’s main focus is on weekly gaming events and providing gaming fun within a family atmosphere.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and support your growing business,” said Leah Poole, Executive Director of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

Many of Jungle Jake’s regular visitors gathered to celebrate this event. The shop’s gaming family in attendance offered in-depth explanations of the intricate figurines on display, which are part of an on-going battle each week. In addition to weekly gaming events, the shop is beginning to form leagues for their loyal fans.

“Our customers are awesome, from young to elder generations, they are why I love my job”, said Jason Lee. Jason explained his love for their new location on Memorial Drive and proceeded thank all those in attendance, especially his wife and children, for their support.

The event concluded with guests conversing over pizza, cake and beverages provided by Jungle Jake’s.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
