

News

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November 29, 2011

CONTACT:

Carrie McDowell, Membership Services Specialist

carrie@libertycounty.org

(912) 368-4445

HINESVILLE, GA. – Alltel Wireless hosted a grand re-opening ribbon cutting celebration in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, November 29th. The event was held at Alltel’s location, 552 West Oglethorpe Highway in Hinesville, as a celebration their membership with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce. Store Manager, Jabron Webster, welcomed customers, friends, chamber staff, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“Thank you all for coming out this morning, we are grateful to be part of such a supportive community,” Webster said. He went on to introduce his staff members and explain some of the services offered by Alltel Wireless.

Allied Wireless Communications Corporation (AWCC) is a wireless telecommunications provider based in Little Rock, Arkansas. The company serves subscribers in six states – Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Illinois, Ohio and Idaho. Alltel specializes in wireless voice and data services, including messaging, wireless Internet access and other streaming features.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and support your growing business,” said Kevin Thomas, Chairman of the Board of Directors with Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

Those in attendance were encouraged to participate in Alltel’s “Help us Help Others” campaign. Donate two cans of non-perishable food or a new unwrapped toy at their location and enter to win a FREE HTC-7 Pro cell phone. Donations will benefit local families and children in need through various food banks and non-profit organizations.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.

Picture Caption: Board Members, Ambassadors, Chamber Staff, Chamber Members, Community Members, and Jabron Webster with staff members.