

News

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

December 13, 2011

CONTACT:

Carrie McDowell, Membership Services Specialist

carrie@libertycounty.org

(912) 368-4445

HINESVILLE, GA. – Amedisys hosted a grand opening/ribbon cutting celebration in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, December 13th. The event was held at their office, 513 West Oglethorpe Highway, in the shopping plaza with Save-a-Lot and Bealls, in celebration of their membership with the Chamber of Commerce and the opening of their new location in Hinesville. Denise Hockensmith, Director of Operations and Vicki Block, Operations Manager, welcomed employees, chamber staff, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“We are truly honored to provide quality service to our surrounding community. We take great pride in the services offered here at Amedisys,” said Carl Russel, Account Executive. He went on to thank the staff for their dedication to the company’s mission, specifically naming Becky Spell, Care Transition Coordinator, for her efforts in planning the ribbon cutting.

Amedisys offers home health care services to surrounding communities. They offer skilled nursing, home health aides, rehab specialty programs, physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, medical social workers and chronic care programs. Amedisys takes pride in working closely with their client’s physician(s) to coordinate all aspects of care, with a focus on their client’s ability to recover and regain their independence.

“Welcome to the Chamber family, we are here to support you in any way we can,” said Barbara Martin, Board Member of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

Attendees enjoyed a wide array of tasty treats prepared by Becky Spell. The event commenced with attendees networking and enjoying conversation throughout the office. Those interested in more information about Amedisys’ programs may contact (912) 877-3844.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 504 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.

Picture Caption: Board Members, Ambassadors, Chamber Staff, Chamber Members, Community Members, and Denise Hockensmith with staff members.