HINESVILLE, GA. – Changes Salon hosted a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Monday, October 17th at 790 Frank Cochran Drive in Hinesville. Salon owner Kristal Hunter, along with staff members, welcomed chamber staff, board members, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“We are thrilled to be welcomed by the community with such excitement and warmth, everything is moving along so quickly.” said Michal Atwood, Salon Manager. She went on to announce the expansion of the salon. Over the next few weeks there will be three new stations added and the salon will undergo remodeling to accommodate their growth.

Those who attended the event were treated to free eyebrow waxing services, tours of the facility and a large array of treats. Pink hair extensions were offered for those that wanted to participate in the salon’s fundraising efforts for breast cancer awareness this month.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and to support your growing business,” said Leah Poole, Executive Director of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
