MIDWAY, GA. - Mr. Cash, hosted a Ribbon Cutting Ceremony in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday, September 20th at 60 Butler Avenue in Midway. Owners, Chris Eason and his wife, Becky Eason, welcomed their staff, chamber staff, board members, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“We thank you all for being here today. We love helping people through their times of need. Many times we see our customers take their profits to the gas station across the street, and we feel good knowing that we’ve helped someone get to work that day,” Mr. Eason said. He went on to share that his customers enjoy the convenience their shop offers.

Mr. Cash sells a wide selection of goods, such as high-tech gaming systems, computers, televisions, household appliances, workshop accessories and many more unique items. They are a full service pawn shop assisting customers with loans against pawned items and purchases of personal items.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and support your growing business,” said Kirsten Pratt, Membership Director of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

People who attended this event enjoyed a sampling of tasty treats, provided by Mr. Cash. Attendees were invited to browse items throughout the shop and were assisted with questions.

“The City of Midway supports you and welcomes you to the Chamber of Commerce”, said Dr. Clemontine Washington, Mayor of Midway.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
