HINESVILLE, GA. – South Georgia Immediate Care Center hosted a grand opening/ribbon cutting celebration in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Thursday, December 1st. The event was held at their new location, 780 East Oglethorpe Highway in celebration of the new facility. Dr. Brian Kornblatt, President and CEO of Georgia Immediate Associates, welcomed elected city officials, patients, chamber staff, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“We are thrilled to be operating within such a dynamic community,” Dr. Kornblatt said. He went on to thank the community leaders and the location staff members for their dedication and support, specifically naming Theresa Summers as the main coordinator in constructing the facility.

South Georgia Immediate Care Center offers support in patient services, as well as employer services. They bill themselves on their high quality service, professionalism and convenience for their clients.

“Thank you for choosing Hinesville for your new location, we look forward to supporting you in any way we can,” offered Charles Frasier, Hinesville’s Mayor Pro Tem. He went on to commend South Georgia Immediate Care Center for their new facility and support of the surrounding communities.

The new facility offers physician examinations for illness and injury, pediatric care (9 months and up), minor surgery, school & sports physicals, flu shots, and many other patient services. For employers, South Georgia Immediate Care Center is available for pre-employment physicals, drug testing, worker’s compensation & case management, DOT physicals and flu shot clinics.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here to support you in any way we can,” said Kevin Thomas, Chairman of the Board of Directors with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

Hours of operation for the Hinesville location are Monday-Friday, 9am-8pm; Saturday, 9am-5pm and Sunday, 12pm-5pm. Walk-Ins are welcome.
