HINESVILLE, GA. The Paw Spaw, LLC, hosted a Ribbon Cutting/Grand Opening Ceremony in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, September 14th at 105B North Main Street in downtown Hinesville. Priscella Hooper, owner, along with her staff, welcomed chamber staff, board members, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

“I am excited to be a part of this historic downtown community. This shop is a stepping stone toward achieving my ultimate dream,” Hooper said. She went on to explain her dream of opening a large-scale pet facility to include expert grooming services, training and boarding of pets.

The Paw Spaw, LLC is a luxury pet salon offering services including de-shedding, teeth brushing, nail filing, grooming, nail painting and many other luxurious treatments for pets. Primarily servicing cats and dogs, Hooper and her team are happy to discuss services for other small pets.

“We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and support your growing business,” said Kevin Thomas, Chairman of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors.

People who attended this event enjoyed a sampling of tasty treats, provided by the Paw Spaw, along with tours of the facility and one-on-one information.

“The Hinesville Downtown Development Authority supports you and appreciates your contributions to our efforts in community growth”, said Vicki Davis, Executive Director of the Hinesville Downtown Development Authority.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce’s mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its’ 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
