HINESVILLE, GA. – Tidy Hands Cleaning Service hosted a grand opening ribbon cutting celebration in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, November 16th. The event was held at the Chamber of Commerce office located at 425 West Oglethorpe Highway in Hinesville. This event was held in celebration of Tidy Hands' new business and membership with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce. Owner, Shy Eldridge, welcomed customers, friends, chamber staff, ambassadors, members and people from the community to this event.

"I'm so thankful to my family and friends for their support. It has been a dream of mine to own my own business and, thanks to God and my support system, my dream has come true," Shy said. She went on to explain the services offered and shared her excitement to work in the community.

Tidy Hands Cleaning Service's slogan is "Cleaning with a Purpose." Services offered include home & commercial cleaning, move-out cleaning, scheduled cleaning and other one-on-one arrangements can be made. Free estimates are available.

"We welcome you to the Chamber, we are here for you and support your growing business," said Kirsten Pratt, Membership Director of the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce.

The event commenced with a blessing of the business by Shy's father, Mr. Leonard Eldridge. Following the blessing, attendees enjoyed a spread of tasty treats and conversation. Those in attendance received a coupon for 10% off a cleaning service.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce's mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its' 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
