HINESVILLE, GA. Darin Townsend Family Dental Center, located at 767 Frank Cochran Drive, hosted a Ribbon Cutting/Grand Opening in conjunction with the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce on Wednesday, August 31st at their newly renovated offices which is next to Fred's.

Dr. Townsend, owner, along with his family and friends, welcomed chamber staff, board members, ambassadors, members and people from the community.

"We owe all the glory to God," Townsend said. He went on to explain their excitement in opening this state-of-the-art dental office in Hinesville. He also took the time to introduce his staff and family in attendance. His wife, whom he said is the "real boss", planned the event and has decided not to go back to teaching in order to coordinate the thriving practice.

Townsend Family Dental Center offers a wide variety of dental services. Some services offered are life-like dentures, teeth whitening, customized professional cleanings, gentle dental surgery and more. Their highly-qualified staff members take pride in servicing clients of all ages, including children.

"We welcome you to the Chamber and want you to know that we are here for you," Leah Poole, Executive Director of Liberty County Chamber of Commerce said.

Established in 1976, the Liberty County Chamber of Commerce's mission is to support new and existing business, trade and industry within Liberty County, while increasing the cultural, civic, educational and overall quality of life of its citizens. The Chamber and its' 442 members are committed to enhancing the local business climate and maintaining a high quality of life in the community.
